

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Verladia Reed v Gregory Reed
Docket No. 277532
L.C. No. 00-032452-DM

William C. Whitbeck, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The claim of appeal from the March 29, 2007 order is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction since the amount of receiver fees owed had not been set before appellant claimed its appeal. A final order may only be found after the circuit court issues an order or a series of orders that establish liability and the amount of damages owed. Children's Hosp v Auto Club Ins Ass'n, 450 Mich 670, 677; 545 NW2d 592 (1996). Furthermore, appellant's reliance upon MCR 2.604(B) as an exception to the final order rule is misplaced since the action before the Court is not a receivership or similar action and the order appealed is not certified as required by the subrule. If appellant wants to challenge this interlocutory order before the entry of the final order, it must file a delayed application for leave to appeal. MCR 7.203(B)(1) and 7.205(F)(1).
